

February 16, 2013

News Release

For Immediate Release

Public Works Salting Roads Saturday Morning

A City of Springfield Public Works crew is already out salting roadways, as officials found roadways had slick spots around the area. Interim director of streets Ron Bailey called in a crew this morning after driving several roadways to check conditions.

Pavement temperatures are not going to be above freezing until between 10 a.m. and noon, Bailey said.

For more information, contact Cora Scott at 417-380-3352.